1. What do you think is the most challenging part of serving children: building the school building or providing educators for them? Why?
2. How do you feel when you see that Mark's role and duty as a teacher is not only teaching in the classroom?
3. What kind of changes would you like to see in the lives of children in the Western Archipelago and how can you be a part of those changes?
4. Are there any questions you have about the work? What would you like to learn or understand better?
